

Gabrielle Lyn D'Alemberte, Esq
The Law Offices of Robert L. Parks, P.L.

The practice of law is Gabrielle Lyn D'Alemberte's profession and passion. She is one of South Florida's most accomplished trial attorneys having logged over 40 civil cases and a partner at The Law Offices of Robert L. Parks, PL. D'Alemberte, along with Robert Parks, successfully represented victims of an investment scheme operating in the Sarasota office of the Jackson Hewitt Tax Service in the very first case to hold a franchisor responsible for the acts of its franchisee. She designed a domestic abuse awareness program which was implemented at select schools in the Miami Dade school system. As a result, American Bar Association President Steve Zack appointed her to serve on ABA's Commission on Domestic Violence. She likewise serves on the Civil Rules and Evidence Committee (CREC) of the South Florida Bar Committee. D'Alemberte also works pro bono and partners with the Legal Aid Foundation of Tallahassee for which she recently received the Pro Bono Award from the Florida Supreme Court.
