ROBERT L. PARKS & GABRIELLE D'ALEMBERTE

Trial Attorneys

As dedicated trial attorneys with decades of experience, Robert L. Parks and Gabrielle Lyn D'Alemberte are committed to providing personal attention and professional services to every client. Instead of focusing on case volume, the firm focuses on case selection and likelihood of recovering for their clients and clients' family. At The Law Offices of Robert L. Parks, Parks and D'Alemberte successfully advocate for people who have suffered a serious loss through the negligence and fault of others.

Parks, a long-time South Florida resident, is a nationally recognized trial attorney who focuses on aviation, wrongful death, offshore resort litigation and product liability cases. Since being admitted to the Florida Bar in 1964, he has represented plaintiffs in numerous aviation cases having been involved in most major airline disasters and has handled over 200 general aviation crashes. In addition, he has been named one of the "Best Lawyers of America" every year since its inception in 1983, and is a leader in the community, heading efforts for nearly 20 years to restore the Miami River as its Chairman and serving on the Everglades Foundation. Parks recently received the 2011 War Horse Award from the Southern Trial Lawyers Association, their highest honor, given in recognition of extraordinary contributions to the cause of justice.

D'Alemberte is a sixth generation Floridian who has focused on access to Courts all her life. Her specialties include products liability, negligent security, general personal injury, hurricane litigation, and malpractice. D'Alemberte is an appointee to both the Florida Bar's Civil Rules Committee and the ABA's Commission on Domestic Violence. She has represented clients in dozens of jury trials as lead counsel. D'Alemberte was listed as an 'Up and Comer' in the 2010 issue of South Florida Legal Guide, was featured in Business Leader Magazine's 2010 Women Extraordinaire and Power issues, and is on the 'Together We Must' committee for Legal Services of Greater Miami.
